

Do NOT weaken the no call list. Not having telemarketers call has been a major improvement in my quality of life. If I want or need services, I am quite capable of locating them myself. Telemarketing is extremely invasive and I never buy anything this way anyhow. Please keep the no call list strong. It is a blessing to not have telemarketers calling your home.